THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. A new airport is proposed to be developed at Tura in Meghalaya.

(c) and (d) The State Government of Meghalaya has handed over the land to National Airports Authority (NAA). An amount of Rs.2.43 crores has been earmarked by NAA to be spent during the Eigth Plan period. The present cost estimates of this project is Rs.6.17 crores. The NAA would take up the project when the financial resources are identified.

Earnings of Janpath and Ranjit Hotels

4115. SHRI GHUFRAN AZAM. Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the ITDC has earmarked about Rs. 20 crores for renovation and face-lift of certain five star or four star hotels during the year;

(b) whether the ITDC's Hotels, Janpath and Ranjit have been earning sufficient profits currently unit-wise with high rates of occupancy;

(c) whether elevators/lifts in the above two hotels are outdated and they have no central air-conditioning plants;

(d) whether customer services have been fastly deterorating without any effective action from the management;

(e) whether the management of the above two hotels are not directed to revamp these hotels to serve better and increase profitability with reputation; and

(f) if so, the details and the reasons thereof?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) For the year 1994-95, ITDC has drawn up a renovation programme for its hotels envisaging capital outlay of Rs.600 lakhs.

(b) As per provisional results for the year 1993-94, while hostel Janpath earned net profit of Rs.131.35 lakhs achieving 76% occupancy, Ranjit Hotel incurred a loss of Rs.72.26 lakhs and achieved occupancy of 41%.

(c) Though the elevators/lifts in both these hotels are old, these are maintained regularly to ensure satisfactory operation. These hotels do not have individual central air-conditioning plants.

(d) No Sir, the services provided in these hotels are of requisite standards.

(e) and (f) Though presently there is no proposal under consideration to change the profile of these hotels, necessary renovation/improvement works are undertaken to maintain the hotels upto acceptable standards.
